

FSG500 Debate- Semester Jan 10-Apr 10 Master List
Topic 1: Scientific activities and not Natural Phenomenon is the Chief Cause of Global Warming
Topic 2: Solar Power is Key in Reducing Emissions and Hence Reducing Global Warming
When you are not debating, you will be an audience in the assigned room. Your attendance is taken in that assigned room. Each name that appears first on the list for the Affirmative (for example M Fakhurazi, Noor Ayunie and Nur Shahida) and Against (for example Amirah, Abu Bakar and Ros Azida) will act as the group's coordinator. The First Speaker will be responsible to define terms in the Title and Introduce to the audience about their team's point of view. The other speakers will support the view by giving supporting arguments and they will also be allowed to rebut points made by their opposition. All members will arrange to meet with their coordinator to discuss on who is the first, second, third speaker & so on and to decide which premises each speaker will address or argue (meet up during the weekend March 20th-21st) to avoid redundancy and to ensure continuity of arguments. Request to change dates of presentation or grouping will only be allowed if there is mutual agreement between individuals with prior consent from me. (Due to the complexity and difficulty in arranging for your date and groups, I highly discourage any change.)
Contact: DrJJ: 0193551621: Starting time for each session is 8:15pm. Each debater is given only 7 minutes

Topic 1: Scientific activities and not Natural Phenomenon is the Chief Cause of Global Warming
Topic 2: Solar Power is Key in Reducing Emissions and Hence Reducing Global Warming
When you are not debating, you will be an audience in the assigned room. Your attendance is taken in that assigned room. Each name that appears first on the list for the Affirmative (for example M Fakhurazi, Noor Ayunie and Nur Shahida) and Against (for example Amirah, Abu Bakar and Ros Azida) will act as the group's coordinator. The First Speaker will be responsible to define terms in the Title and Introduce to the audience about their team's point of view. The other speakers will support the view by giving supporting arguments and they will also be allowed to rebut points made by their opposition. All members will arrange to meet with their coordinator to discuss on who is the first, second, third speaker & so on and to decide which premises each speaker will address or argue (meet up during the weekend March 20th-21st) to avoid redundancy and to ensure continuity of arguments. Request to change dates of presentation or grouping will only be allowed if there is mutual agreement between individuals with prior consent from me. (Due to the complexity and difficulty in arranging for your date and groups, I highly discourage any change.)
Contact: DrJJ: 0193551621: Starting time for each session is 8:15pm. Each debater is given only 7 minutes
